

GROWTH PLANNER

MAKE A LIFE

MAKE A LIFE

WELCOME

We are excited that you have picked up a Growth Planner. Success in businesses like ours is found in learning how you manage your month. So much of the contents of this planner are for the business leader wanting to grow their business through cultivating relationships and daily focus. It takes focus, a commitment to grit, and a clear vision for the life you want to make. The Growth Planner is also all about nurturing relationships from month to month. Why? Starting fresh every month builds new relationships and grows your paycheck

If you already have a planner from last month, it might be worth revisiting the past few months. What patterns will help you start well and finish strong? What do you need to keep doing or stop doing? Finally, consider the big rocks, events, and prospects that will demand your attention this month. Let's start well and finish strong this month.

How to Use This Planner

First, like anything, it takes practice. What works best for you is the best thing for you. Although we are biased about the habits and rhythms inside, we invite you to make it your own to fit your daily practice.

Second, carve out time. If there is one thing you will learn from this planner, it's the importance of the Quiet Start. Our founder, Curt Beavers, believes that having a daily Quiet Start to seek God is the most significant game-changer when starting to make a life, not just a living. You may not be a person of faith. That's ok! Carving out time for reflection, meditation, or prayer with a daily focus on your business will yield results beyond your imagination.

Lastly, growth doesn't happen alone. So much of our strategy in business is built around the importance of relational capital. Starting a business is hard. Running a thriving business is even harder. But with the right group of people around, you will find support when you need it. So, with that said, we want to be there with you to help you shape and guide your business. Reach out to us at growth@thebeavers.net. We would love to know how we can support your journey to stop trading hours for dollars to pursue the life for which God created you to live.
